

Environmental Consulting, Bremen, Germany

DaimlerChrysler AG, Bremen Works

Service area	Contract value	Project duration
Environmental Consulting	ca. €100,000 p.a.	2000 - ongoing

Project description:

Consulting and support of the environmental protection department with regard to the introduction and implementation of a site environmental management system. Assistance in combining different management systems in an operational integrated management system IMS.

Purpose:

- Participation of Öko-Audit

Our services:

- Organization of revalidation and recertification
- Updating and coordination of documents and their preparation
- Organizing information events and instruction
- Participation in environmental reporting (annual reports; Environmental Statement)

Client benefits:

- Save time by working gravity concentration
- No detriment to uninfluenced day to day business
- Objective achievement